FARVIEW RECORDING, Chicago, is pleased to announce the release of

ROCK DRUMS VOLUME III.

Farview Recording, creator of the original rock drum samples for Drumagog, has carried on their tradition of excellence with the 3rd installment of the Rock Drums series, featuring superior, innovative and unique drum samples. Farview Recording's owner and chief engineer, Jay Walsh, is committed to serving professional audio engineers the world round by offering the highest in quality and value. Jay Walsh is one of the premier audio recording and mixing engineers in Chicago and the Midwest.

As with Rock Drums I and II, the audio engineer can expect samples that are diverse and intelligently recorded and processed. Rock Drums Volume III includes the following elements for the benefit, ease and convenience of the engineer:

- 108 professionally recorded, processed and produced samples
- 20 kick gogs = 5 kicks, sampled raw and processed three different ways
- 24 tom gogs = 3 sets of 4 toms each, sampled raw and processed
- 64 snare gogs = 16 snares, sampled raw and processed three different ways
- All drums sampled with more velocity layers to give a smoother, more realistic response
- Sampled drums include DW, Tama, Trick, Premier, Pearl, Ludwig
- Available in both gog (for Drumagog) and wav format, making Rock Drums Volume III compatible with all samplers and drum replacement programs

Farview Recording's Rock Drums drum sample collections are ideal for the various sub-genres of rock music, but will also enhance and mix well in a wide variety of musical styles, such as country, R&B, funk, jazz, pop, gospel, amongst others.

Farview Recording has built its enduring reputation in the industry on providing clients and customers with top-quality audio services and products, such as Rock Drums drum samples, at a very competitive, affordable and reasonable investment.

Rock Drums Volume III is now available for $159.00USD.

In keeping with their "top-quality at an affordable rate" principle, Farview Recording also announces a steep reduction in price for its original drum sample collection, Rock Drums Volume I: $50.00USD - a $44.00 price reduction.

A package deal is being offered to those who wish to purchase all three Rock Drums drum sample collections. Volumes 1, 2 and 3 may be ordered as a bundle for $258.00USD. Purchased separately, the three Volumes would equal $308.00. The savings value of the three Volume package deal is $50.00.
